

Northside

North Fulton, Cherokee, Forsyth

'Field Day' set in Roswell for ham radio operators

The North Fulton Amateur Radio League will have its annual "Field Day" demonstration, a chance for ham operators to show off their skills and what they can do with radios in a disaster, from 2 p.m. Saturday to 2 p.m. Sunday at Waller Park Extension, 160 Dobbs Drive, Roswell. Operators also will show new technology for communicating with ham stations worldwide through digital modes, as well as voice and Morse code. The event is free, and guests can participate. Information: www.nfarl.org.

JOHNNY EDWARDS

Deanery to 'welcome home' war veterans

The North Metro Deanery of the Catholic Archdiocese of Atlanta will have a "Welcome Home" event for veterans on Saturday. It starts at 10 a.m. at St. Peter Chanel Catholic Church, 11330 Woodstock Road, Roswell. The event will offer ways the faith community can help returning veterans transition from warrior to civilian.

Information: militaryministry@stpeterchanel.org.
JOHNNY EDWARDS

Cherokee history museum opens exhibit

The Cherokee County History Museum and Visitors Center has debuted a new temporary exhibit entitled "What We Wore: Mid-20th Century Women's Fashion." The exhibit features historic photographs, artifacts and documents and runs through Sept. 30. Admission is free at the museum, 100 North St., Suite 140, Canton. Info: cherokeecountyhistorymuseum.com.

MARK WOOLSEY FOR THE A.J.C.

Cherokee chamber needs vendors for expo

The Cherokee County Chamber of Commerce is seeking vendors for its Business Expo Aug. 14. The event showcasing local businesses and those with a Cherokee connection has a maximum of 57 spaces for general exhibitors, and another 10 spots reserved for eco-friendly vendors. Chamber officials say about 37 slots remain. Information: www.cherokeechamber.com.
MARK WOOLSEY FOR THE A.J.C.

Candidates forum in Cherokee today

The Cherokee County Farm Bureau and Cherokee County Chamber of Commerce are co-hosting a political forum at 6:30 p.m. today in the pavilion at Cagle's Family Farm, 362 Stringer Road, in Canton. All local, state and national candidates are invited. All candidates with opposition will have a chance to speak.

Candidates with no opposition will be introduced. Information: 770-479-1481, Ext. 0.
JEFFRY SCOTT

Ex-Hawk Mutombo to speak in Alpharetta

Former Atlanta Hawks basketball player Dikembe Mutombo will be the keynote speaker at the Greater North Fulton Chamber of Commerce's Eggs & Enterprise breakfast at Alpharetta's Metropolitan Club on June 28 at 7:30 a.m. The retired NBA player of 17 years is renowned for his 15-year-old Dikembe Mutombo Foundation, which works to eradicate childhood disease in his native Democratic Republic of the Congo.

For information, contact Debbie Ryals at 678-397-0556.
MICHAEL ALPERT FOR THE A.J.C.